good, come and try them - my cake is a boiled one and ~~chick~~ full of cloves, rather hot for summer of older times - but the biscuits are O.K. then I prepared dinner and left it waiting for Maude until one A.C. when Edna and I sat down to table. She came in at 1-15.

after the dinner was cleared away Maude did out some wash preparatory to her going to New York, which she intends to do tomorrow leaving quite early in the morning.

Edna did the sweeping and dusting of the front part of the rooms. After supper Maude went to the coal mines (with the Oakley family) over on Canada Street near the fire house.

Edna has gone to town in the hope of getting a bargain I presume.

Sunday morning.

Mrs. Hetzel came and I finished the evening visiting. Edna has gone to the Baptist Church and Maude to the Presbyterian. Maude leaves in the morning to visit New York City for the next ten days.

It is now afternoon, dinner over and Edna is doing dishes. Maude attended Sunday school at the Methodist church in Mr. Lisher's class. likes the M.E. Church best she tells me. She sat just back of Nettie and Jennie in the Pres. during service.

Well I see that I have repeated her going to the City so you will surely get informed that she intends going. I am
